

U.S. Army ROTC

A Pathway to Student Success

Presented by:

Lieutenant Colonel Lee Bokma

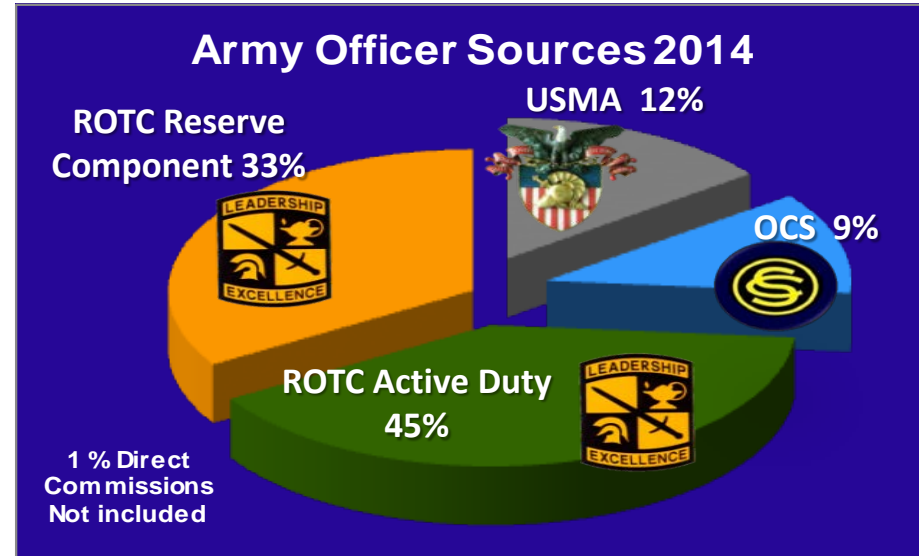

Professor of Military Science, University of Nebraska-Lincoln

What is ROTC?

- Army ROTC (Reserve Officers' Training Corps) is the largest of the sources that commission Army Officers.
- Leadership development program imbedded into college curriculum taken in addition to the student's normal major

- Available at over 946 colleges and universities nationwide
- Holistic leadership development program includes academic classes, practical application labs, physical fitness, field training, and summer training
- ROTC produces Officers for the US Army. JROTC produces better citizens for our nation

What do Cadets learn?

- Leadership Skills
- Moral and Ethical Conduct
- Time Management
- Effective Communication
- Critical Thinking/Problem Solving
- Physical Fitness
- Stress Management/Resilience
- Technical and Tactical Skills needed to be an Army Officer

Scholarship Opportunities

- Provide Merit Based Financial Assistance for Quality Students Who Have Achieved Academic Excellence and Demonstrated Leadership
- Variety of scholarship types from 2-4 years in length (high school based, on-campus based, Minute Man/Guaranteed Reserve Forces Duty)
- All scholarships cover:
 - Full tuition and fees covered or $10,000/yr for room and board
 - $1200/yr book allowance
 - $300-$500 monthly stipend for the academic year (10 months)
 - Freshman - $300
 - Sophomore - $350
 - Junior - $450
 - Senior - $500

Scholarship Eligibility

- US Citizen
- Age 17-26 years
- High School GPA of 2.50
- Minimum of 920 SAT or 19 ACT
- Must meet Army Physical Fitness and Medical standards
- Acceptance to a 4-year degree granting College or University

Who We Are Looking For

Academic Standing of Scholarship Winners

- 44% in the top 5% of their class
- 82% in the top 25% of their class
- 49% members of the National Honors Society
- Average GPA of 3.7

Athletic Performance of Scholarship Winners

- 80% are varsity letter winners
- 61% are captains of their varsity teams

Leadership Credentials of Scholarship Winners

- 16% are Presidents of their HS student body
- 43% served as elected leaders of their class or student body
- 88% served as elected leaders of a club or organization

Bottom Line = We are looking for high-performing, well-rounded Student/Athlete/Leaders that demonstrate excellent potential for success as a future leader

George C Marshall

*Virginia Military Institute
Army Chief of Staff
Secretary of Defense
Secretary of State*

Colin Powell

*City College of NY
Secretary of State
2001-2005*

Sam Walton

*University of Missouri
American Businessman
Founder of Wal-Mart*

James Earl Jones

*University of Michigan
Actor
Movies and Broadway*

Leon Panetta

*Santa Clara University
Secretary of Defense
2011 - 2013*

Mark Milley

*Princeton University
Chief of Staff of the Army
2015-present*

HS Scholarship Application Process

- Application window opens during the summer between the Junior and Senior year of HS
- Application window closes December of the Senior year of HS
- Complete the online application
 - Go to www.goarmy.com/rotc and establish an account
 - Enter personal data and statement
- School Verification of qualifications
 - School guidance counselor must verify all data (in or out of school)
 - School sends copies of GPA, SAT/ACT and Class Rank
- Physical Assessment Test
 - Schedule and complete the Cadet Physical Assessment
 - Completed by a HS official
- Professor of Military Science Interview
 - May be conducted at any Army ROTC program
- Centralized Selection Boards held in October, January and March
- Complete a Medical Physical after scholarship is offered
- Apply and be accepted to a University with Army ROTC
- Minute Man Scholarship opportunities for students interested in National Guard/Reserve duty; apply through an ROTC program or National Guard/Reserve Recruiter

Service Obligation

- Following graduation be commissioned as a 2nd Lieutenant in the US Army
- 8 year total obligation to be served in one of two ways:
 - 4 years Active Duty followed by 4 years in the National Guard, Reserves, or Inactive Ready Reserves
 - 8 years in the National Guard or Reserves

US Army Cadet Command
Leaders for Life

Leadership Excellence
This We'll Defend